

Culinary Manager Javier Guerrero

Javier Guerrero has spent a 22-year career as a culinarian at Palomar Health. His experience includes retirement facilities, restaurants and hospitals. A member of the National Restaurant Association, he has represented Palomar Health at Coeur de Cuisine numerous times since 1999. With his industry-led skillset, Javier has partnered with the Humane Society of the United States, ensuring that Palomar is recognized for plant-based dining. Palomar Health has received proclamations from the cities of Escondido, San Marcos, and San Diego County for the benefits of Meatless Monday, a long-established tradition—that Javier has put his heart into.